Safety and Support Options

You may go to the Counseling Center's - CEASE Program for support, advocacy, and counseling. The CEASE program provides advocacy and referrals for Fredonia students that are survivors of sexual assault. The CEASE program can answer questions, provide students with available options, offer emotional support, and make referrals to appropriate resources. The CEASE office is located in LoGrasso Hall; appointments can be made in person, by calling the office at (716) 673-3424, or emailing the CEASE coordinator at Julie.Bezek@fredonia.edu. The CEASE office is open M-F, 8:30 am - 5:00 pm.

If the assault occurred in the last 72 hours you can go to Brooks Memorial Hospital to have evidence collected and receive medical services such as treatment for injuries, STD/HIV testing, and the morning after pill. If it has been more than 72 hours or you do not wish to have evidence collected, the Health Center and FRED ASSIST (LoGrasso Hall) can assist you with your medical needs such as the morning after pill and STD testing.

If you would like to report the incident to the police for possible criminal action contact the University Police (assaults that took place on campus), Fredonia Village Police (assaults that took place off-campus), the State Police, or the police jurisdiction in which the assault took place. Filing a police report does not necessarily mean that you have to press criminal charges. You may choose other options, including university judicial action.

If you would like to report the incident to pursue action through the student conduct process at the university, report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator: Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, 143 Fenton Hall, (716) 673- 3358. The Title IX coordinator can discuss the investigation process, receive the complaint officially, and outline options for interim measures such as changing academic and living situations.

If you have additional needs such as on-campus housing accommodations, academic concerns, or need a 'No Contact Order', you can contact the CEASE program, LoGrasso Hall, (716) 673-3424 for further information on available options. In addition the Office of Residence Life, Gregory Hall, (716) 673- 3341, the Division of Enrollment & Student Services, Maytum Hall, 6th floor, (716) 673-3271, or the Title IX Coordinator can assist you with accommodations.

Law Enforcement and Student Conduct AssistanceUniversity Police

Gregory Hall, (716) 673-3333 - <http://students.fredonia.edu/upd>

Fredonia University Police are specially trained to identify and respond to the special needs of students who have experiences of sexual violence. Victims who want to file a police report can contact the University Police (assaults that occurred on-campus).

Title IX Coordinator – Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

143 Fenton Hall, (716) 673-3358 – <http://home.fredonia.edu/diversity>

The Title IX Coordinator is specifically trained to offer support for anyone regarding an incident of sexual violence. The coordinator can assist in decision making related to filing criminal or on campus judicial charges, and would serve in the capacity of an investigator related to an on campus hearing process. The coordinator is a neutral role who also maintains statistical information related to reported sexual violence.

Student Conduct

611 Maytum Hall, (716) 673-3271 - <http://students.fredonia.edu/studentconduct>

The interest of the Office of Student Conduct is to ensure mutual respect among the student population and to adjudicate cases and educate students who are charged with violations of the Students Rights and Responsibilities (Code of Conduct). Students may discuss issues of sexual assault, partner violence, stalking or other acts of misconduct by scheduling a meeting with the Director of Student Conduct at (716) 673-3271.

Fredonia Village Police

Temple Street, Fredonia, NY, (716) 679-1531 - www.fredoniapolice.org

The Fredonia Police Department can assist students who have experienced sexual assault, partner violence, and/or stalking off campus.
